

JOB TITLE: PROJECT ENGINEER
DEPARTMENT: CONSTRUCTION

JOB SUMMARY:

Design and engineer control system hardware and software programming based on project plans, specifications, and other contract documents. Provide analysis of building control and HVAC system performance at a complete systems and campus level. Insure documentation is accurate and complete. Provide project management on projects as required, interfacing directly to ATS customers. Supervise sub-contractors and suppliers. Direct project financial responsibility increases with tenure in this position, including use of ATS project management financial reports. This is an exempt position.

SKILLS AND ABILITIES:

- Programming skills
 - Strong analytical skills
 - Strong interactive and communication skills
 - Management of technicians and subcontractors
 - Strong troubleshooting skills
 - Experience with electronics and basic electrical circuits
 - Knowledge of DDC Control Theory and Applications
 - Ability to work independently and unsupervised
 - ACAD skills
-